The company offers businesses of all sizes, from new startups to public companies, a suite of products and services covering payments, revenue management, and money management.

About Robinhood Ventures Fund I

Robinhood Ventures Fund I is the first fund from Robinhood Ventures, and is available to trade on the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE) under the symbol RVI. RVI is a closed-end fund that provides investors exposure to a concentrated portfolio of private companies that includes Airwallex, Boom, Databricks, ElevenLabs, Mercor, Oura, OpenAI, Ramp, Revolut, and Stripe, with additional companies expected to be added over time.

Unlike many traditional private market vehicles, RVI is designed to be accessible to retail investors, with no accreditation requirements, no investment minimums, a competitive management fee, and no performance fees.

RVI uses the “Announcements” section of the RVI website (accessible at <https://robinhood.com/us/en/ventures/rvi/>) and the Robinhood Newsroom (accessible at newsroom.aboutrobinhood.com), as means of disclosing information to the public in a broad, non-exclusionary manner for purposes of the SEC Regulation Fair Disclosure (Reg. FD). Investors should routinely monitor those web pages, in addition to RVI’s press releases, SEC filings, and public conference calls and webcasts, as information posted on them could be deemed to be material information.

Investors wishing to buy or sell shares of RVI can place orders through an intermediary or broker.
