

Futures Additional Risk Disclosure Statement (UK)

Robinhood Derivatives, LLC is providing you with this additional risk disclosure because one or more of the following applies to you:

- You are under the age of 21,
- You are over the age of 65,
- You are unemployed,
- You are retired,
- You are a student,
- You have less than a year of total trading experience,
- Your annual income is less than £50,000,
- Your net worth is less than £5,000,
- You are investing retirement funds,
- You are investing gift or inheritance funds,
- You are investing insurance settlement funds to trade futures.

We advise you to consider the risks involved with trading commodity futures. The risk of loss in trading commodity futures and options can be substantial and may be inappropriate for you for the reasons referenced above; therefore, you must consider whether such trading is proper in light of your financial condition. You may sustain a total loss of your initial margin funds and any additional funds that you deposit to establish or maintain a position. In addition, market conditions may be such that your account can incur a negative balance. Before deciding to participate in the futures markets, you should carefully consider your investment objectives, trading and investment experience, and risk tolerance. Only risk capital (money that you are able to lose without adversely affecting your standard of living) should be invested.

Robinhood Derivatives, LLC may require that additional funds, which may be automatically transferred from your linked securities brokerage account, be provided to properly meet margin requirements. Failure to maintain the minimum margin requirement may result in the liquidation of any open positions with resultant losses to you.

This brief statement cannot disclose all the risks and other significant aspects related to trading in futures markets. By continuing to trade in your Robinhood Derivatives, LLC account after receiving this Additional Risk Disclosure, you acknowledge that you have a full and complete understanding of the risks involved in futures trading and have decided to trade futures despite these risks. You further acknowledge that the funds you have committed to futures trading represent risk capital and a loss of such funds will not jeopardize your standard of living.
