

SUPPLEMENTAL LIMITED MARGIN AGREEMENT:

The purpose of this agreement is to allow Robinhood Financial LLC and Robinhood Securities, LLC (together, "Robinhood") to accept instructions to allow for day trading up to the cash held in an IRA, a Rollover IRA, a SEP-IRA, a Roth IRA or a SIMPLE IRA (hereinafter, the "Account"). This agreement, which is designated as a form of limited margin agreement (the "Agreement"), provides you with important terms and conditions for engaging in use of limited margin and/or day trading strategies in your Account ("Limited Margin"). You understand that under no circumstances will any extension of credit or margin borrowing be made available to you in your Account. You must agree to the terms and conditions of this Supplemental Limited Margin Agreement to engage in Limited Margin. This Limited Margin Agreement is in addition to, and meant to be supplemental to, the Custodial Agreement and Customer Agreement applicable to your account, and this agreement is incorporated by reference herein.

Limited margin trading allows you to avoid certain Federal Reserve Board Regulation T settlement periods when trading in an IRA account. It does not allow for borrowing of funds, creating a margin debit, short selling, or selling naked options – which are typical features of a margin account.

LIMITED MARGIN ACCOUNT FEATURES

1. Limited Margin permits the purchase of securities with the use of unsettled funds. Specifically, you are permitted to sell a security, and before the trade settles, use the unsettled funds to purchase other securities, up to the amount of the unsettled funds or other cash in the Account.
2. The Account does not have features of a typical margin account. Under no circumstances will Robinhood extend any credit or margin in the Account.
3. Limited Margin trading does not allow for borrowing of funds, creating a margin debit, withdrawal of unsettled funds, short selling, or selling naked options.
4. To the extent that your trade creates a short or debit position in the Account, the position will immediately be covered with other assets from the Account. Robinhood reserves the right to refuse to settle any transaction and may cease offering limited margin in the Account without notice.

CUSTOMER ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

5. You acknowledge and agree that assets outside of the Account may not be used as collateral for an extension of credit or margin borrowing in the Account for purposes of, including but not limited to, creating a margin debit, short selling, or selling naked options. There shall be no debit balances in the Account. Robinhood is authorized to liquidate or cover deficiencies in the Account without notice to you.
6. You agree that, Robinhood may require a limited minimum equity or asset value in the Account in order to use Limited Margin. It is your responsibility to ensure that sufficient assets are maintained in the Account to cover all possible obligations, including limited minimum equity. Robinhood may refuse or disable Limited Margin or options privileges at any time and without notice to you. You shall be subject to all obligations and restrictions in the Customer Agreement and nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as in any way reducing or restricting such obligations and restrictions.

7. It is your responsibility to ensure transactions do not result in excess obligations in the Account. You understand and agree that if transactions do result in excess obligations in the Account it may result in a taxable event and cause tax consequences. You agree to hold harmless Robinhood from any tax consequences caused by excess obligations in the Account and agree that Robinhood shall not be responsible for any excess obligations in the Account.
8. You acknowledge and agree that investing using Limited Margin in the Account entails risk. Day trading can be very risky and is not appropriate for customers with limited resources, limited investing or trading experience, or a lower risk tolerance. You acknowledge that your decision to utilize Limited Margin privileges are solely yours. You acknowledge and agree that Robinhood is not responsible for determining the suitability or appropriateness of Limited Margin or of any trades utilizing Limited Margin in the Account.
9. By establishing the Account, you understand that the Account is subject to FINRA's Pattern Day Trading Rules. Pattern Day Trading occurs when you initiate four or more day trades within five business days, provided the number of day trades are more than six percent of the total number of trades for that same five-day period. A day trade occurs when you buy and sell, or sell and buy, the same security on the same day. Day Trading presents additional risks. You further agree that if the Account is designated as a pattern day trading account, you will be required to maintain $25,000 equity at all times in order to continue day trading.
10. You represent that you have had the opportunity to consult with a tax and legal advisor prior to opening the Account and prior to requesting or utilizing Limited Margin. You acknowledge Robinhood has no responsibility regarding the suitability or propriety of utilizing Limited Margin.
11. You acknowledge and agree that you understand and agree to be bound by the terms of this Agreement and of the Customer Agreement.
